

1
2
3
4
5
6
7           UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8           WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9           AT SEATTLE

10           MAYZE DANIELS, et al.,

CASE NO. C20-0295JLR

11           Plaintiffs,

ORDER

12           v.

13           NATIONAL RAILROAD
14           PASSENGER CORPORATION, et
15           al.,

Defendants.

16           Pursuant to the court's order striking its discovery motion (10/28/20 Order (Dkt.
17 # 20) at 2), counsel for Defendant National Railroad Passenger Corporation ("Amtrak")
18 contacted the court to request a conference regarding a discovery issue. Amtrak's motion
19 to compel (MTC (Dkt. # 18)) shall stand as its statement on the discovery issue. The 20 court ORDERS Plaintiffs Mayze Daniels and Darrell Parodi (collectively, "Plaintiffs") to
21 jointly file a single statement of no more than five (5) pages responding to the discovery
22 //

1 issue and providing brief argument in support of their position. Plaintiffs must file their
2 statement no later than Wednesday, December 30, 2020, at 5:00 p.m.

3       The court further ORDERS the parties to appear at a telephonic hearing on
4 Tuesday, January 5, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. Parties are directed to call in at 866-590-5055
5 and use the access code 1228416 # to join the telephonic hearing at the designated time.

6       The court cautions Plaintiffs that failure to fully comply with this order may
7 constitute grounds for sanctions up to and including dismissal. The Clerk is DIRECTED
8 to send a copy of this order to Plaintiffs.

9                   Dated this 17th day of December, 2020.

---

10                   JAMES L. ROBART
11                   United States District Judge

12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22